Sensational Suits Filed.

Somewhat of a sensation has been sprung here in the last few days by the filing of a number of attachment suits against Mr. Jas. E. Kern, the well-known horse trader. Against him personally suits amounting to between $1,200 and $1,500 have been filed, and two by the First National and Agricultural banks for about $2,600 against him as executor of his wife, Mrs. Carrie Kern. The attachments have been levied on the 100 acres of land that was left to Mr. Kern in fee simple by the will of his wife, for the amounts he has been sued on for his personal debts, near $1,300. There is a mortgage on the land for $3,500, which will, of course, come in first, held by Mr. H. S. Letton.

Mr. Kern is not in the city and could not be located in the past few days and we cannot say whether matters will be straightened out or not.

The Georgetown News gives the following wail in its last issue:

"The canvas spread over the door of several of the business houses on which is printed 'selling out to quit business,' besides two vacant rooms does not speak well for Georgetown. This is the result of people running away from home spending their money. These people that make this a practice will find out that the rooms that they have been renting at $50 and $75 per month will be hard to rent for $20. It's a pity, but such is the case."

OCULIST.—Dr. H. C. Bowen, the oculist, will be at A. J. Winters & Co.'s on May 4, 1905.

Honors For a Minister.

At Maysville, the Rev. F. W. Harrod, of Latonia, presiding elder of the Covington district M. E. church, was elected eminent commander of Maysville Commandery, No. 10, K. T., and presented by the commandery with a magnificent uniform and all his expenses to the meeting of the Grand Commandery of Kentucky at Richmond next month. This is the first minister to be exalted to that high office in Maysville Commandery.

RELIGIOUS.

Rev. W. C. James, of Louisville, will preach Sunday morning and night at the Baptist Church, in this city.

President Burris Jenkins, of K. U., Lexington, will preach Sunday morning and evening at the Christian Church.

Mr. Carnegie offers to give $1,000,000 for the support of superannuated Methodist ministers, provided others will first contribute $24,000,000. The generous old boy is safe on this proposition.

Easter offerings to the churches of New York City are estimated to have considerably exceeded $250,000. Indeed, the sum total of the seven or eight churches classed as the wealthier congregations probably reached that figure. In some instances the gifts were as large as $25,000 from individuals.

The many friends of Rev. Dr. F. J. Cheek in this city will be glad to hear of the success of The Church of the Covenant, of Louisville, since his installation as pastor. The church made the best report it has made for years at last meeting of Presbytery. There have been 65 additions during the past year and all contributions to mission work increased.

Exciting Episode at Hargis Trial.

Considerable excitement was caused at the Hargis trial at Lexington, Wednesday, by the tilt between Judge Morton and Col. C. J. Bronston.

The disturbance arose over an objection which was raised by Judge Morton to a question put to the witness. Judge Morton repeated the objection, and Col. Bronston said that the court had ruled on the question. "I am not addressing you, sir, I was addressing myself to the court," Mr. Bronston made no reply immediately, and when Judge Parker had spoken, said: "I do not think Judge Morton meant his remark, and the manner in which he made it."

"I did mean just exactly what I said, and I repeat that I was addressing the court and not you."

"Then your remarks were uncalled for and ungentlemanly."

Judge Parker rapped for order, and Judge Morton proceeded to speak, referring to Col. Bronston, and repeating in substance what he had said before. Col. Bronston turned to Judge Parker and said: "If your Honor please, I submit to you that if Judge Morton continues to cast reflections on me, I will resent it."

Judge Morton proceeded: "I am not a bully nor a fighter, but if I did not make allowances, I would resent his insult."

"You can not pass them, for I repeat that your remarks are uncalled for, improper and ungentlemanly."

"Mr. Clerk, assess $30 fine against Col. Bronston for contempt of court."

"And are you going to fine Judge Morton also?" asked Col. Bronston.

"I will determine as to that," replied Judge Parker.

"Then I think it is manifestly unjust and unfair," said Mr. Bronston.

Col. Bronston then wrote his check for $30 and handed it to the Clerk.

So endeth the lesson for the time being.

Authorized Statement of Senator
Blackburn's Position.

The following is an authorized statement from Senator Jo. C. S. Blackburn, published in the Louisville Courier-Journal.

"In view of the fact that many misleading statements and irresponsible interviews are being attributed to me, and realizing that I will have to contend with this same trouble in the future, I want to make a plain and unequivocal statement as to my position in the fight now in progress. I believe that the domination of the machine now assailing me, means ruin to the Democratic party. I believed this a year ago when they sent to me and offered me their support in my race for the Senate on condition that I would let them alone. So sure was I that the triumph of this machine meant a turning over of the State to the State to the Republicans that I refused their offer and notified them then that I proposed to make war on them until their power was destroyed, no matter what the consequences might be to my personal fortunes. Feeling as I did, I would have been a traitor to my party to have surrendered to what I knew to be the most dangerous and most unscrupulous coalition that was ever formed to throttle free expression of the people. In consequence of my refusal I have to-day their bitter and malignant opposition, and I would rather ten thousand times go down in defeat in trying to save my state and party, than to win with their help. I want it distinctly and emphatically understood that from now until all the nominations for the Legislature are made, I shall be on the stump, doing all in my power to awaken the people to their danger. From this time on my best endeavors shall be given to help elect every Democratic nominee whether he is for or against me. My Democracy is too well known for any one to doubt my absolute loyalty to my party at all times, and I shall be found fighting its battles as long as there is breath in my body whether it returns me to the Senate or not.

"My position briefly, then, is this: Believing that the supremacy of the machine means turning over the State to the Republicans as certainly as the sun rises in the East, I will fight it to the last ditch. I want to go back to the Senate and feel sure that I shall, but if my seat depends on ceasing to warn my people of their danger, I would gladly sacrifice it. Every Democratic nominee for the Legislature may feel sure of my earnest and hearty support no matter how he stands in the Senatorial race, and when my party has acted in the matter of selecting a State ticket, I will be found standing by her standard no matter if it may seem doomed to ignominious defeat."

Paris, Ky., Friday, April 28, 1905.

A WEEK or two ago a negro charged with assault upon a white woman in Coffeyville, Kansas—not Arkansas—was pursued by a mob bent on lynching him, but escaped. The mob then notified the negroes living there to move out of town under penalty of its vengeance. Now it is Mt. Vernon, O., where a similar assault was committed, and the negro only escaped lynching by being spirited away to Columbus in an automobile. In contrast with these manifestations of lawlessness is a Mississippi town, in which a negro was suspected of such offense, when through the prompt action of the Governor he was held in safe custody of the law, duly tried by the proper court and acquitted. While it is gratifying to notice the increasing respect in the South for the law as a remedy of violence of all kinds, evidence is not wanting to show that there is a dangerous increase in the North, both in the character of crimes is cited and in the mob spirit which they evoke. The situation carries its own comment.

EVEN in Russia there is now a movement for the separation of Church and State. A memorial of St. Petersburg clergy, published in the semi-official church organ says: "If the spread of indifference and irreligion is to be checked and if the church is to realize its high God-given calling, only a church free from external influence in the direction of all its affairs, by avoiding the liability of being considered a force of action under the influence of, and obligation to, the State, can hope to check the spread of other faiths and creed in Russia and retain the nation in the faith of the fathers." Perhaps about as pertinent a comment on this as could be made is: "Rats desert a sinking ship."

ONE event of last week merits strong commendation. We refer to the words of Andrew Carnegie, who said he had no objection to the marriage of his niece to a poor man, though the man was a teacher in a riding school. As a matter of fact he wants no Dukes in his family. Of course, they cannot be kept out, at times, and some Dukes, when they behave themselves, are just as good as Americans, but when a Duke, or Count, or any other man, is a plain fortune hunter, they are simply pestilential afflictions—and very poor specimens of manhood, something for which the rest of us blush upon any occasion.

PRESIDENT WOODROW WILSON, of Princeton University, thinks "the trust evil may be cured by prayer." As all other methods have failed we have no objection of trying this one. At the same time, we believe it will take long and continuous prayers, so the sooner the good work is started the better. We suggest that the politicians lay off and not attend these prayer meetings, for if we are not mistaken there is something in the Good Book about "the prayers of the wicked avail not," or words to that effect.

THOMAS W. LAWSON issues another advertisement in the various daily papers throughout the country Tuesday headed "Panic Coming." He contends that billions of Wall street now bear fictitious values and predicts a big smash. He warns bank and trust company presidents and directors against their loans on stocks and bonds, and finally takes a big whack at the insurance companies. Lawson has already created the biggest financial stir the country ever witnessed and it looks as if he may create another one.

THEY have had a bank defalcation in Milwaukee which is well worth the name. The President wasn't a piker, but a plunger, to whom millions seemed small matters. His gleanings went the usual route—Wall street and wheat—two games which are almost as bad as the poolrooms, at least they are just about as hard to beat.

It is noted that the Vice President of the Equitable draws a salary of $100,000 per annum and the Vice President of the United States draws only $8,000 per annum, and isn't even allowed to sit on the lid, while the Equitable Vice President is allowed to get 'way down into the heart of the stew.'

Paris Bank Caught By Forger.

A stranger worked one of our local banks Wednesday with a forged check. The amount of the check was $50, with the name of Mr. B. F. Buckley signed to it. From what we could glean it was a Bourbon Bank check, but that institution being closed, the stranger presented it at the First National and was there turned down. He then called at the Agricultural, where, we understand, he had it cashed.

MARRIAGES.

Lengthy telegraph reports in yesterday's dailies tell of the beautiful wedding at Kansas City, Mo., of Dr. Alexander J. A. Alexander, of Woodburn, Springs Station, Ky., and Miss Kate Lee Holloway. The groom was attended by Robert O. Kirkwood, of Lexington. Among those present from Kentucky were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Simms and Mrs. A. J. Alexander, mother of the groom. After a short trip in the East the couple will sail on May 9th for Italy, and will be at home at Woodburn, in Woodford county, in about four months.

Herman Campbell and Miss Emma Hayden were married Wednesday in the county judge's office, at Lexington, by judge Ben D. Bell. Both are from near Hutchison, this county. The bride is only fifteen years old and has not discarded short dresses. They were accompanied by the girl's mother.

Harrison, of Lexington, agent for the Kentucky State Auditor, Wednesday entered suit at Madisonville against the St. Bernard, Renicks, Oakhill and Crabtree Coal Companies for failing to correctly list their mine properties. The value of the properties is estimated to aggregate $10,500,000, and the tax due State claimed is $125,000.

DEATHS.

—Mr. Frank Cleaver, aged ninety-three, died Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock at his home near Blue Lick Springs of general debility. He was a native of London, England, and is survived by three sons, Thomas, Ross and Silas Cleaver, all of Bourbon. The remains were interred Wednesday.

—Mrs. Ada C. Berry, wife of Walter G. Berry, died Tuesday night, at Edina, Mo., of blood poison. She is survived by her husband and six children, two being twins only two weeks old. Mr. Berry is a brother of Mrs. F. P. Lowry, of this city, and Miss Carrie Berry, of Lexington. He formerly lived at North Middletown, this county, and has the heartfelt sympathy of many friends there in his sad affliction.

—Mr. Peter Mernaugh, aged 65 years, died at his home, in this city, Tuesday afternoon, after a few days illness with pneumonia. Mr. Mernaugh was the last surviving brother of the late Captain James Mernaugh. He was a veteran of the Civil War, belonging to the ninth Kentucky Cavalry, C. S. A., commanded by the late Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge, and was a brave and gallant soldier. He is survived by one son, James Mernaugh, and two daughters, Misses Mollie and Bridget Mernaugh. The funeral services were held at the grave in the Paris cemetery yesterday afternoon. The pall-bearers were his old comrades and as follows: Judge Russell Mann, Joseph A. Miller, A. T. Forsyth, C. J. Clarke, J. E. Hedges, John D. Penn, George Gregory and Richard Talbott.

—Mr. Edward Woods, Sr., died at his home, in this city, on Wednesday, April 26, of general debility. He came to this country about fifty years ago from the County of Limerick, Ireland, and has made Paris his home nearly ever since his arrival. He was one of our oldest citizens and highly respected by all. He is survived by his wife, ten children, thirty-seven grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. The children are as follows, the name of the oldest first and as they range to the youngest: Mrs. Mary Cronin, of Cincinnati; Miss Maggie Woods, Thos. Woods, Mrs. John Cain, Jack Woods, of Paris; Mrs. Jas. Harrington, of Cynthiana; Mrs. Geo. Rassenfoss, Mike Woods, Mrs. Ed. Shinners and Edward Woods, Jr., of Paris.

Mr. Woods was a stonemason by trade and a number of the best foundations in Paris to-day were built by him or under his supervision. He was considered the best stone-mason that ever lived in this community, and continued to work at his trade up to about two years ago, when his health began to fail.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 9:30 o'clock at the Catholic Church, conducted by Rev. Father E. A. Burke. The pall-bearers will be: Jas. Farrell, Geo. Gregory, Pat Deignan, John T. Doyle, Nick Connell, Pat Shea, Mike Holloran and Wm. Linnehan.

Things Have Changed.

Mr. Webster Bedford, of Missouri, is here on a visit to his sister, Mrs. W. W. Shropshire, of the county, and Mrs. Carrie Pryor, of Scott county. He left Bourbon for Missouri in 1866, and this is his first trip back since leaving. He says Paris looks like the hustling and growing cities of the West, and he could scarcely locate any of the old landmarks that existed at the close of the war, having given way to handsome business houses.

A Pleasing Entertainment.

The largest audience that has been to the opera house for several years greeted Mrs. Princess Long, Tuesday evening, and highly enjoyed her musical. Mrs. Long was in good voice and gave a most pleasing entertainment. One beauty about her entertainment is that you can hear every word spoken. Her enunciation is excellent and is appreciated by audiences wherever she appears, as so often you can not catch a word of many singers of to-day. She was complimented by all present for her delightful entertainment.

Fiscal Court Orders Two Changes.

At a meeting of the Fiscal Court, Wednesday, the Building Committee was given the power to change the front steps of the court house; also to change the grade of the yard as had been fixed by the civil engineer from Lexington. The committee is to advise with the Architect in regard to the changes. We are glad these important changes are to be made, for we have believed from the first that unless made they would greatly mar the appearance of the beautiful building. If they had completed the grading of the yard by the plans of late survey there would have been a ten foot embankment on the north side of the yard.

Gentry is Coming to Town.

Despite the familiarity of all persons with the immensity of the operations necessary to the handling of such a trained animal show as is that conducted by the Gentry Bros., the show is this year so much greater in every direction that the fact is at once apparent and it is hardly necessary to call attention to it. Three things which impress visitors to the Gentry show this year, and these impressions are not lost even after one hundred visits, are its overpowering magnitude, its supreme excellence and real perfection of organization. Liliputian animal actors in superabundance, all performing curious terpsichorean originalities and odd feats of gyrations with curious and comic episodes are seen in a merry mixture of a new and novel fun-making performances. Gentry Bros. will positively appear in this city on Thursday, May 4th; afternoon at 2, evening at 8, with a gorgeous street spectacle at 10 o'clock in the morning.

Bourbon Horses Win.

P. J. Millett's Hyperion II and Cotown won races at Nashville Wednesday.

Fresh Drummer Knocked Out.

Capt. S. G. Sharp, formerly of Lexington, United States Marshall, gave a sound "thrashing" to a traveling man. W. T. Hammond, from St. Louis, in front of Glyndon Hotel, at Richmond, Tuesday night.

Hammond, it is alleged, endeavored to flirt with the Misses Mitchell and Sharp, two young ladies attending Federal Court with Capt. Sharp. The young ladies became frightened at the actions of Hammond.

Sharp was informed and went after Hammond. They engaged in a fight in front of the hotel and Hammond was badly beaten. Capt. Sharp would have killed Hammond had not a man named Prather grabbed his pistol. Hammond hurriedly left the city.

Located in Lexington.

Having located at Lexington, I desire to announce to my Bourbon friends and patrons that my offices are located in the McClelland Building, room 732. An invitation is extended all patrons and friends to call.

A GOOD NIGHT'S REST

"Speak for it!" she cried to doggie, For she knew in her little heart, That German Syrup, home's great treasure, Could health and joy impart.

The greatest tonic on earth is a good night's rest. Restless nights and the terrible exhaustion of a hacking cough are dread dangers of the poor consumptive. But why this fear of the night when a few doses of Dr. Boschee's German Syrup will insure refreshing sleep, entirely free from cough or night sweat? Free expectoration in the morning is made certain by taking German Syrup.

We know by the experience of over thirty-five years that one 75-cent bottle of German Syrup will speedily relieve or cure the worst coughs, colds, bronchial or lung troubles—and that, even in bad cases of consumption, one large bottle of German Syrup will work wonders. Two sizes, 25c and 75c. All druggists.

Good Day For Nan.

Wednesday was rather a good day for the defense in the Nan Patterson case. Stern, the pawnbroker, by whom the prosecution expected to prove the sale of the pistol with which Young was killed to J. Morgan Smith, Miss Patterson's brother-in-law, failed to identify Smith or Miss Patterson. In addition, there was testimony of brutality shown the girl by Young a short time before the tragedy. The prosecution expected to close its case by noon yesterday.

M. Clay, of this county, is mentioned as holding a note against him for $40,000. Mr. Walker is now in Texas and New Mexico looking after vast interests there.

The Louisville Primary.

The Democratic primary for the nomination of candidates for next November's election in Louisville and Jefferson county was quiet. The vote was unusually large, considering the inclement weather and the fact that the candidates for many of the perspective offices were without opposition. General interest centered in the races for County Judge, County Assessor, City Auditor and City Clerk.

Judge Charles A. Wilson ran a remarkable race, winning over J. J. Fitzgerald; Magistrate John M. Adams won over P. S. Ray for County Assessor; Lyne Herndon won over Charles Neumeyer for City Auditor, and Alf. Oldham received the nomination over Albert Gray.
